

EIGHTH ANNUAL UC DAVIS EQUITY SUMMIT

RECLAIMING EDUCATION

Tuesday, March 13, 2018

4:30–9 PM

UC Davis Conference Center | Davis, California

Join educators, community members and experts from a range of disciplines for this annual event that addresses the pertinent social issues of our time. The UC Davis Equity Summit coalesces people, ideas and institutions to deepen strategies, shape actions and create solutions:

- Connect with colleagues over dinner, refreshments and music.
- Be inspired by Social Justice Award winners.
- Create an action plan through in-depth discussions.
- Explore resources and a curated pop-up book store.

Register by February 19 for early-bird pricing*

conferences.ucdavis.edu/equity

Students.....	$21
Individual Registration	$75
Team Table (nine people).....	$900

*Prices change to $40, $100 and $1,000 after February 19, and registration officially closes March 1.

KEYNOTE: Dr. Leigh Patel

Professor Patel is a professor at UC Riverside and the award-winning author of Decolonizing Educational Research: From Ownership to Answerability, and Youth Held at the Border: Immigration, Education and the Politics of Inclusion. She has been a consistent voice in educational policymaking and analysis, and her writing and research has been featured in media outlets including Beacon Broadside, The Atlantic, The Feminist Wire, Racialicious.com and HuffPost Live. She is the recipient of the June Jordan Award for scholarly leadership and poetic bravery in social critique.

UCDAVIS
equity.ucdavis.edu