

ADMINISTRATION & DIVERSITY

IN THE PUBLIC UNIVERSITY:

A FEMINIST CONVERSATION

Thursday, April 4th
SCC Multipurpose Room

SCHEDULE

1:00-1:45

What do the histories of establishing social justice motivated departments and programs have to teach us now looking forward?

1:45-2:30

What are the consequences and possibilities of institutionalizing social justice within the university?

2:45-3:30

As researchers and teachers in units with social justice histories, to whom are we accountable?

3:30-4:45

Workshops on histories and future of social justice in the university.
RSVP to fri.ucdavis.edu

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Erica Kohl-Arenas (UCD), Nick Mitchell (UCSC), Mishuana Goeman (UCLA), Clarissa Rojas (UCD), Neda Atanasoski (UCSC), Felicity Schaffer (UCSC), Rana Jaleel (UCD), Fatima El-Tayeb (UCSD), Raquel Aldana (UCD), Tiffany Willoughby-Herard (UCSB), Sunaina Maira (UCD), Chris Hanssmann (SF State), Kasturi Ray (SF State)

UCDAVIS

FEMINIST RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Cosponsors: American Studies Program, College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences, College of Biological Sciences, Critical Theory Program, Cultural Studies Graduate Group, Davis Humanities Institute, Department of English, Department of Cinema and Digital Media, Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies, Imagining America, Office of Campus Community Relations, Office of Public Scholarship, School of Engineering, School of Veterinary Medicine, School of Health Office for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, School of Law