

The UC Davis School of Education, the Office for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, and Graduate Group in Education presents

Expanding Equity in Education Research Speaker Series with

Nolan Cabrera & Gina Garcia

Challenging Dominant Narratives in Higher Education Research

Nolan Cabrera
The University of Arizona

Dr. Nolan Cabrera is an award-winning scholar and nationally recognized expert in the areas of racism/anti-racism on college campuses, whiteness and ethnic studies. He is currently an Associate Professor in the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the University of Arizona, and was the only academic featured in the MTV documentary White People. Dr. Cabrera's book, White Guys on Campus: Racism, White Immunity, and the Myth of "Post-Racial" Higher Education, is a critical examination of race in higher education, centering whiteness, in an effort to unveil the frequently unconscious habits of racism among white male undergraduates.

Gina Ann Garcia
University of Pittsburgh

Dr. Gina Ann Garcia is a leading scholar on Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs) and an associate professor in the Department of Administrative and Policy Studies at the University of Pittsburgh, specializing in Higher Education and Student Affairs. Dr. Garcia's research centers on Latinxs and HSIs, and is guided by the principles of equity and justice. She is the author of Becoming Hispanic-Serving Institutions: Opportunities for Colleges & Universities, published by Johns Hopkins University Press (2019).
