

THE MELLON INITIATIVE IN COMPARATIVE BORDER STUDIES PRESENTS:

HUMANIZANDO LA DEPORTACIÓN/ HUMANIZING DEPORTATION

Image courtesy of Emma Sánchez de Paulsen

JAN SHREM AND MARIA MANETTI SHREM MUSEUM

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH, 3:30PM

Humanizando la Deportación is a bilingual online archive of digital stories (testimonial video shorts) recounting personal experiences related to deportation that documents the human consequences of mass involuntary displacement: <http://humanizandoladeportacion.ucdavis.edu/>

FEATURED GUESTS:

TINA SHULL: Humanities advisor & director of storytelling projects, Community Initiatives for Visiting Immigrants in Confinement (CIVIC).

DARINKA CARBALLO: Founder and director, Fundación Gaia: Acciones que nos guían al cambio, Tijuana.

Contact: Robert McKee Irwin: rmirwin@ucdavis.edu

More information: <http://borderstudies.ucdavis.edu/category/upcoming-events-2/>

COLLABORATIONS:

Humanizando la Deportación is a collaborative project between UC Davis and El Colegio de la Frontera Norte, Tijuana funded by UC-MEXUS and Mexico's National Council for Science and Technology (CONACYT).

This event is cosponsored by: AB540 and Undocumented Student Center, Human Rights Studies.